

CALIFORNIAN
REFERENCE DEPARTMENT ANNEX

MAIN LIBRARY

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 1223 90155 6556

917.9447 F699yo

672311

NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THE LIBRARY

FORM 3427

PHOTOGRAPHS BY

D. J. FOLEY
PUBLISHER

"THE TOURIST OFFICE"
YOSEMITE, CALIFORNIA

YOSEMITE the BEAUTIFUL

YOSEMITE

Thou hast earth's utmost beauty, mighty gem
Of ice-wrought granite from the hand of God!
And never man thy purple deeps hath trod,
But he hath felt the awe that mantles them.

Thou art the loveliest poem of nature,—thou Art music, mystery and magnitude!
No eye e'er thy majestic glory viewed,
But wept and caused the hushed soul to bow.

—Herman Scheffauer.

Photographs by
J. J. Foley. Publisher
The Tourist Office
Yosemite, California

x917.9447

F699yo

672311

Upper Yosemite Fall
Height: 1430 Feet

General View of Yosemite from Bridal Veil Meadows

Moonlight on the Merced

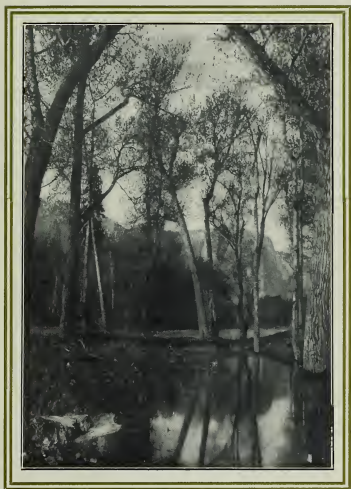

The Cathedral Spires
Height: 2,678 Feet

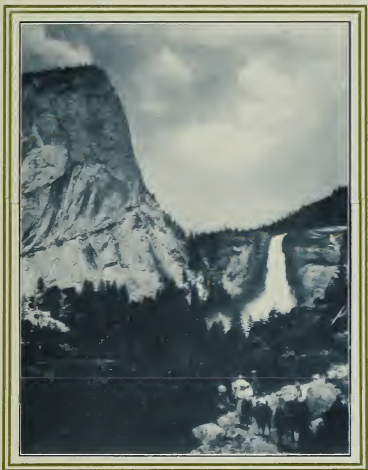

Only a Reflection of Cathedral Rocks

Bridal Veil Fall
Height: 620 Feet

Nevada Fall
and Liberty Cap

Sentinel and Merced River
Height: 3,100 Feet

The Three Brothers
Height: 3,813 Feet

The Three Graces and Leaning Tower

Vernal Fall
Height: 317 Feet

The "Andy Johnson," Mariposa Grove

El Capitan

Height: 3,300 Feet

At the Happy Isles
"Where the Waters Meet"

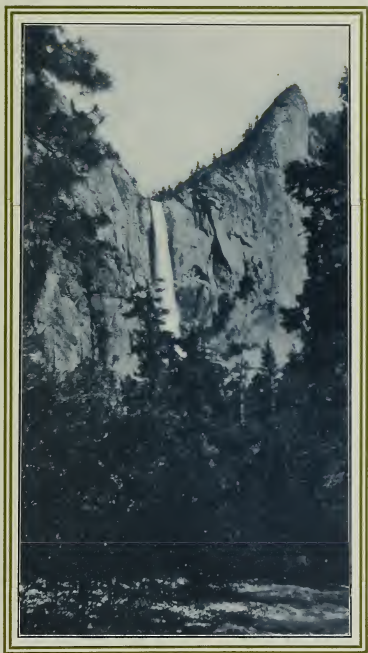

The Half Dome and Royal Arches

The Bridal Veil
and Leaning Tower

Vernal Fall, Profile, from Clark's Point

On the Heights of Glacier Point
3,254 Feet Above the Valley

Mirror Lake and Mt. Watkins

El Capitan and the Merced River
Looking East

Nevada Fall
Height: 594 Feet

Rapids of the Merced
from El Capitan Bridge

The Telescope Tree, Mariposa Grove

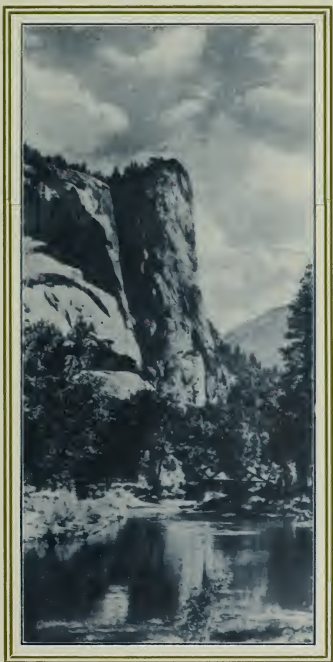

The Yosemite Falls
Height: 2,565 Feet

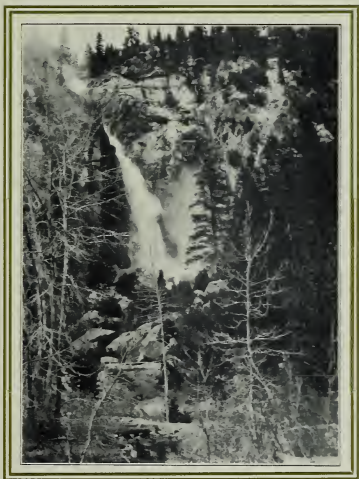

Bruin in his Native Haunts

The Royal Arches
and Washington Column

The Cascade Fall
Height: 300 Feet

The Vernal Fall and Liberty Cap

The LeConte Memorial Lodge

